BONDSMEN WILL GET AWAY

Records in the Case of Convict Dougherty of Peoria Stolen and Burned.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 7.—The safety vault at the public library was blown open last night and all records of the N. C. Dougherty case were stolen and afterwards burned in the furnace in the building. Dougherty, who formerly was superintendent of schools, is now in the penitentiary, and the destruction of these records may be the means of releasing his bondsmen. The police have no clue to the perpetrators, but believe it to have been the work of expert cracksmen, assisted by some one familiar with the building.

Only documents which bear on the Dougherty scandal were taken. The following is a list of Dougherty's bondsmen: Richard A. Cutler, T. H. Franklin, W. M. Benton, Wm. H. Miller, Benjamin F. Blossom, Richard W. Kempshall, Matthias Huffman and O. J. Bailey.

ENGINEER IN HOSPITAL.

Inquiry Into Rock Island Horror Postponed for the Present.

Topeka, Kas., Jan. 7.—The coroner's jury which today commenced an inquest in Wabunsee county regarding the death of thirty-two persons in the collision on the Rock Island railroad at Volcan, Kas., last Wednesday morning, has not completed its labors, and adjourned this evening until such a time as Engineer Slater, of passenger train No. 29, can give his testimony. Slater is at present in a hospital in Topeka. Next young Lynes, the telegraph operator, he is the most important witness. Lynes and half a dozen other witnesses, including members of the crews of the two trains, testified today. The testimony of the other witnesses throws the blame on Lynes. The fifteen unidentified bodies of Mexican laborers, taken from the smoker of train No. 29, have been buried in a single trench in the Alamo, Kas., cemetery.

HOPE FOR THE PONCE.

Vessel a Staunch Craft and Chances Favor Her Safety.

New York, Jan. 7.—Another day has passed with no news from the steamship Ponce of the New York & Porto Rico Steamship company, which sailed Dec. 23 from Ponce, Porto Rico, for New York. That the United Fruit company's freighter Admiral Farragut, San Antonio to Philadelphia, had sighted the Ponce disabled and wallowing in the trough of the sea off Cape Henry last Saturday was found to be a false hope today.

The vessel, her owners say, is a staunch craft, with high-class modern equipment, and the chances favor her safe passage.

CAUCUS CALL TO BE ISSUED TODAY

Republican Members of Legislature to Confer Saturday Night.

ONLY SEVEN DEMOCRATS

MAIL FOR SOLONS ARRIVING IN SALT LAKE CITY.

Mail is already beginning to accumulate on the desk of Assistant Secretary of State Squires for members of the coming legislature, although that body does not meet until next Monday, and the Republican caucuses will not be held until next Saturday night. Few of the members from the outside counties are expected to arrive before Saturday, but candidates for the various legislative offices will be here to receive them with open arms.

A formal call for caucuses of the Republican members of the senate and house will be issued today by State Chairman O. J. Salisbury and State Secretary George B. Squires. These will be held next Saturday night in the city and county building. The senate is solidly Republican, while only seven out of the forty-five members of the house are Democrats. The caucuses will determine the list of officials of the two bodies.

Private Secretary Willard Done is busy typewriting the first draft of the governor's message to the legislature, which will be delivered on the second day of the session. Mr. Done intimates that the message will be rather voluminous, and that a great many important matters will be dealt with. In fact, Mr. Done is of the impression that the coming session will develop some rather weighty legislation, and proves it by the heft of the governor's message.

Governor Cutler himself is resting, while his secretary performs the laborious work of typewriting the message.

The Ninth cavalry, now at Fort Riley, Kan., is one of the negro regiments just ordered to the Philippines.

Harriman Regime Reinstates Motor-men and Conductors.

One feature of the policy of the new Harriman regime in control of the local street car system is shown in the restoration of a number of the old motor-men and conductors who have been deposited for various reasons in the past few months. Probably twenty-five old employees have thus been restored.

It is related that when a former conductor made application for reinstatement one of the last fifteen years, and believing him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

MAKE YOUR WILL BEFORE GOING TO LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, Jan. 7.—Dr. L. M. Powers, president of the city health board, stated today that thirty-one deaths in this city within the past few weeks, caused from pneumonia, were attributable in a direct way to the poor gas service and fuel famine. The "off-and-on" gas service nearly caused three deaths against today from asphyxiation. Mr. and Mrs. Turn Marble, of 145 West Jefferson street, and Percy Vickers, of 56 South Main street, were rendered unconscious from the fumes of gas which had stopped flowing suddenly in the pipes, and then again came through the open jets.

ASKS MORE PAY FOR DEPUTIES

Horticultural Inspector for County Files His Annual Report.

COMPETENT HELP NEEDED

500,000 NEW TREES BUDED DURING THE YEAR.

John P. Sorensen, horticultural inspector for Salt Lake county, has completed his report for the year 1906, which is given in part below:

"Through the year I have inspected seven carloads and sixty parcels of trees from outside the state, and fumigated most of them. I have also inspected and fumigated the stock grown by home nurseries as required by law, eight carloads besides 100 large boxes and bundles of which have been shipped out of the county and three-fourths of them out of the state. Two thousand of imported trees were condemned and burned in one lot. Five hundred thousand trees were budded this summer in Salt Lake county, about one-third from fine bearing trees, the balance from young stock. Nurseries should be compelled to bud and graft from bearing stock true to name, and agents from nurseries outside the state should be under bond to sell stock true to name, as some other states have already incorporated in their laws.

Nurseries Inspected Twice.

"All nurseries have been inspected twice and some three times during the growing season. Some 10,000 trees have been dug, fumigated and inspected for root diseases for fall delivery, but 250,000 have been dug and put in houses and frost-proof cellars and part of them fumigated, some dug and inspected, the balance to be sorted and inspected through the winter.

The deputies half time or less this summer. There were 1,300 orchards outside the city inspected. Where but one of the county and I have been visited three or four times. In the city some 200 places were inspected by myself. Some old orchards, past all usefulness, were condemned, cut down and burned, but on account of the want of necessary help, not half that should have been for the good of the county. I have had several cases to report to the county attorney for his action, but all except two have been settled with the law when he sent the sheriff after them. These two, Mrs. Lyndberg and Mrs. McEvan, fought in court, but the court decided against them and they had to comply with the law, cut down the trees and clean up.

Spraying Pays Well.

"Spraying has been done well through the season, but not as effectively as it should be. Some spray twice, others five times. Wherever it has been done it paid well and from fifty to ninety per cent of apoplexy from worms was the result. According to work done and local conditions. And there was a great crop of fruit this season.

No statistical returns were taken this year, for two reasons, one of which was that all the time was employed to assist people with instructions how to spray and take care of their fruit.

The deputies are competent men, and unless their wages are raised at least fifty cents a day we may expect to lose their services, or only get it when no better pay is in sight, and as no competent men for that work can be had, what wages the law allows, I would respectfully draw your attention to this fact.

RECEIVER FOR ANNIE LAURIE

Trust Company to Take Charge of Mining Company's Affairs.

INDEBTEDNESS IS $180,000

PROCEEDINGS ARE INSTITUTED BY LARGEST STOCKHOLDER.

At the chancery sitting of the United States circuit court Monday, Judge Marshall ordered the appointment of the Utah Savings & Trust company as receiver for the Annie Laurie Mining company. The case in question was that of Frank H. Buhl of Sharon, Pa., against the Annie Laurie Mining company and W. S. McCormick.

The Annie Laurie has been in financial difficulties for a long time. The indebtedness of the company exceeds $180,000, and it owes to W. S. McCormick on an overdraft upward of $50,000.

John C. Cox, who is the present manager of the Annie Laurie, will be appointed manager of the company by the receiver. By appointing Mr. Cox to the position of manager, the receiver intends to continue the operation of the mine without interruption. It was given out Monday that the change will not affect the operation.

The receiver was appointed on the petition of Frank H. Buhl of Sharon, Pa., who says he is the largest individual holder of stock in the company, owning 12,000 shares.
